- (i) The Committee will review its performance and this Charter annually and report to the Board.

Charter

Attachment A – Policy on external audit relationships and non audit services

- (a) The Board will not invite any present partner of the Company's current external audit provider or any person who was a partner within the last 3 years to fill a vacancy on the Board.
- (b) Audit partners who have had significant roles in the audit will be required to rotate off the audit after their involvement of 5 successive years (or involvement of 5 years within a 7 year period) and there will be a period of at least 2 successive years before that partner can be involved in the Company's audit again.
- (c) The Company will not employ a former audit partner who was directly involved in the external audit to a position involving responsibility for fundamental management decisions within a period of 2 years following resignation from the audit firm.
- (d) The external auditors may not provide services which are considered to be in conflict with the role of an auditor. These services include investigations and consulting advice, or subcontracting of activities normally undertaken by management, where the auditor may ultimately be required to express an opinion on its own work. Examples of services that should not be provided by the external auditors include:
 - + Preparation of accounting records and financial statements.
 - + Design and implementation of new IT systems and financial controls.
 - + Valuation services in relation to amounts which are included in the Company's financial reports.
 - + Actuarial Services.
 - + Internal Audit services.
 - + Management functions including senior management secondments.
 - + Recruitment and Human Resource services.
 - + Broker, Dealer or Investment Advisor Services.
 - + Legal Services.
- (e) The external auditors may provide non-audit services that are not perceived to be in conflict with the role of an auditor without pre-approval and with no financial limits. Examples of services that may be provided without Committee approval includes:
 - + Tax compliance services in relation to the Company's overseas subsidiaries.
 - + Advice on application of appropriate accounting standards.
 - + Audits or verification of regulatory returns.
 - + Other services of an assurance nature.
- (f) The external auditors may provide other non-audit services where their detailed knowledge of the Company's activities could permit cost and output efficiencies, providing stringent independence requirements are satisfied. These services, based on recommendations from management, must be approved by the Chair of the Committee, who will consult with the other members of the Committee, the external auditors and management as appropriate. The pre-approval of non-audit services under this paragraph is not required if the aggregate amount of such services do not exceed 5% of total audit fees paid by the Company to the external auditor during the preceding year. Examples of services that may be provided with the approval of the Chair of the Committee include:
 - + Strategic tax advice.
 - + Due diligence on potential acquisitions/investments.

Charter

- + Investigating accounting assignments.
- + Corporate finance advice (deal structuring and execution) including Independent Accountant’s Statements.
